

A Prayer

“Let the sinners be consumed out of the earth, and let the wicked be no more. Bless thou the LORD, O my soul. Praise ye the LORD.”

(Psalm 104: 35)

*The desire of the psalmist who wrote Psalm 104, Let the sinners be consumed out of the earth, and let the wicked be no more.

It is not that he desiring destruction to sinners and to the wicked people annihilation.

Psalm 104 speaks about the great work of God in the creation and his marvelous work to man and to the animals and how He arranged their life and their schedules and how He is providing food and shelter to them and supply all their needs in a well arranged manner.

God had made everything beautiful for man and for all what He created. Everything was set up in a correct place and in a proper timetable.

And even when you read the book of Genesis, chapter 1 and 2, then you can see that God’s work is perfect and complete, that the man He created will be living and experiencing life and to the full.

But now if you look to the things around you and see the quos and the troubles all around, with that you will see also the bad effects of sins and it had destroyed many of the good things that God had prepared and organized for man.

*Sin is done by sinners and wicked people who continue to do wrong and destroy the good things that God made. Therefore the psalmist said, Let the sinners be consumed out of the earth, and let the wicked be no more.

Let the sinners be consumed out of the earth, and let the wicked be no more because they did not see and appreciate and honor God and all the good things that He did and prepared for them.*

Let the sinners be consumed out of the earth, and let the wicked be no more because they are harming and affecting others who want to follow God and who wants to live for Him.*

Let the sinners be consumed out of the earth, and let the wicked be no more because that is God’s judgment on the wicked and the sinners who do not repent and amends their ways.*

Let the sinners be consumed out of the earth, and let the wicked be no more. Bless thou the LORD, O my soul. Praise ye the LORD. This is the faith and the confidence of the psalmist in God that He will deal with the sinners and their sins and will protect him and those who want to live in accordance to God will and plan.*

The Lord Is My Shepherd

Vol. 15 Issue 29

“20 For they speak against thee wickedly, and thine enemies take thy name in vain. 21 Do not I hate them, O LORD, that hate thee? and am not I grieved with those that rise up against thee? 22 I hate them with perfect hatred: I count them mine enemies. 23 Search me, O God, and know my heart: try me, and know my thoughts: 24 And see if there be any wicked way in me, and lead me in the way everlasting.” (Psalm 139:20-24)
