

Believe and see the Glory of God

¹⁷ On his arrival, Jesus found that Lazarus had already been in the tomb for four days. ¹⁸ Bethany was less than two miles from Jerusalem, ¹⁹ and many Jews had come to Martha and Mary to comfort them in the loss of their brother. ²⁰ When Martha heard that Jesus was coming, she went out to meet him, but Mary stayed at home. ²¹ "Lord," Martha said to Jesus, "if you had been here, my brother would not have died. ²² But I know that even now God will give you whatever you ask." ²³ Jesus said to her, "Your brother will rise again." ²⁴ Martha answered, "I know he will rise again in the resurrection at the last day." ²⁵ Jesus said to her, "I am the resurrection and the life. He who believes in me will live, even though he dies; ²⁶ and whoever lives and believes in me will never die. Do you believe this?" ²⁷ "Yes, Lord," she told him, "I believe that you are the Christ, the Son of God, who was to come into the world." ²⁸ And after she had said this, she went back and called her sister Mary aside. "The Teacher is here," she said, "and is asking for you." ²⁹ When Mary heard this, she got up quickly and went to him. ³⁰ Now Jesus had not yet entered the village, but was still at the place where Martha had met him. ³¹ When the Jews who had been with Mary in the house, comforting her, noticed how quickly she got up and went out, they followed her, supposing she was going to the tomb to mourn there. ³² When Mary reached the place where Jesus was and saw him, she fell at his feet and said, "Lord, if you had been here, my brother would not have died." ³³ When Jesus saw her weeping, and the Jews who had come along with her also weeping, he was deeply moved in spirit and troubled. ³⁴ "Where have you laid him?" he asked. "Come and see, Lord," they replied. ³⁵ Jesus wept. ³⁶ Then the Jews said, "See how he loved him!" ³⁷ But some of them said, "Could not he who opened the eyes of the blind man have kept this man from dying?"

³⁸ Jesus, once more deeply moved, came to the tomb. It was a cave with a stone laid across the entrance. ³⁹ "Take away the stone," he said. "But, Lord," said Martha, the sister of the dead man, "by this time there is a bad odor, for he has been there four days." ⁴⁰ Then Jesus said, "Did I not tell you that if you believed, you would see the glory of God?" ⁴¹ So they took away the stone. Then Jesus looked up and said, "Father, I thank you that you have heard me. ⁴² I knew that you always hear me, but I said this for the benefit of the people standing here, that they may believe that you sent me." ⁴³ When he had said this, Jesus called in a loud voice, "Lazarus, come out!" ⁴⁴ The dead man came out, his hands and feet wrapped with strips of linen, and a cloth around his face. Jesus said to them, "Take off the grave clothes and let him go." (John 11:1-44)

What you have read is one of the outstanding miracles that Jesus did. If you go and meditate on the above passage would you not come to the conclusion that life and death is in the hand of Jesus? He has the power from God the Father, and in fact He is God, who appeared in flesh. For who can say confidently, "I am the resurrection and the life" unless He is God Almighty. Jesus took the sins of the people and died on the cross once and for all. Thus, whoever believes in Him will live forever. In Jesus there is forgiveness of sin and freedom from the ill-feeling of guilt. So we have the assurance for eternal life by believing in Him.

My dear and beloved: The Bible tells us, "Many of the Jews who had come to visit Mary, and had seen what Jesus did, put their faith in Him." But how about you, is your faith in Him or in someone else? Jesus said, "I am the resurrection and the life," and He raised the man from the dead; will you not put your faith in Him and entrust your life unto His hand, that He can satisfy all your needs; that he can solve your problems; He will answer your prayers, and above all your faith in Him will assure you that you have eternal life. As the Bible says, "Anyone who trust in Him will never be put to shame. For everyone who calls on the name of the Lord, will be saved."

My prayer: "Father God, I come before You in the name of Jesus. Forgive me all my sins and trespasses, I pray. Thank you, Jesus that You came from heaven to bear all my sins and to die for me, to give me eternal life. I believe in You; I put my faith and trust in You. Please take care of me, guiding me in the right and safe way of life until You come back and take me with You to heaven, to live with You forever. Thank you, Lord Jesus." Amen.
