

“But you, be strong and do not give up, for your work will be rewarded.”

(2 Chronicles 15: 7)

Do you believe that there is someone watching over you? He knows every thing about you. He knows very well your good heart and your hard work.

People around you maybe wandering in evil ways, or they are busy with pleasures of this perishable world. You may look odd to them because you are working hard, serving God, and serving the people diligently with pure heart. You do not concentrate on your personal benefit but eager to see others blessed by your presence in their lives.

You may be suffering because you are doing good. You may be even scorned for no reason other than you are standing on the side of truth. But God, the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, He is watching everything as you follow the steps of Jesus your Lord and Saviour. God is delighted in you and He wants to assure you with His words and be blessed.

As for you;

1- Be strong and do not give up:

This is a great encouragement that God wants to give you. He is confirming to you that you are in the right path. He desires for you to continue doing your good work, to persevere, to look forward and do not give up.

2- Your work will be rewarded: For every good work you are doing according to God’s will, there will be reward for it. If you stop your good work you may loss the reward. God is assuring you that your labour is not in vain.

MY PRAYER

Father God in heaven, I thank you for the new life I have in Jesus. I thank you for the living word that gives me strength and assurance. O Lord, I pray that you guard and guide my steps as I do your will. Teach me to persevere in every good work, so that your name will be glorified. Thank You, Lord. This is my prayer in Jesus’ name, Amen.

“Rejoice in the Lord always. I will say it again: Rejoice! Let your gentleness be evident to all. The Lord is near.”

(Philippians 4: 4-5)
