

“²¹ My son, preserve sound judgment and discernment, do not let them out of your sight.”

(Proverbs 3:21)

Two important instructions if you keep then you will reap great blessings:

1- Preserve sound judgment: You need to have wisdom so you will be able to have the right decision at the right time and in the right set up.

2- Preserve discernment: You need to be aware of what you need to do, and to do it properly and at the right time.

The above two points you will be able to achieve if you keep walking and living according to the word of God and in obedience to all His commands and laws.

If you are able to achieve the above, then the following blessings will flow in your life. “²² they will be life for you, an ornament to grace your neck.” (Proverbs 3:22)

A- “²³ Then you will go on your way in safety, and your foot will not stumble.” (Proverbs 3:23): As you made the right choice then you will be moving in a safe and right way.

B- “²⁴ When you lie down, you will not be afraid; when you lie down, your sleep will be sweet.” (Proverbs 3:24): You will have peace and assurance in your heart and mind and that will enable you to sleep sweetly without any fear.

C- “²⁵ Have no fear of sudden disaster or of the ruin that overtakes the wicked.” (Proverbs 3:25): There will be no fearful expectation of sudden disaster that might come into your life. For God Himself is caring for you and watching over your life. What is happening to the wicked will not be happening to you. “²⁶ for the LORD will be your confidence and will keep your foot from being snared.” (Proverbs 3:26)

God will really watch over your life and over your coming and going, and over every decision that you take and do in your life. Therefore preserve sound judgment and discernment as you agree to pray.
