

“¹³ O LORD, the hope of Israel, all who forsake you will be put to shame. Those who turn away from you will be written in the dust because they have forsaken the LORD, the spring of living water.
¹⁴ Heal me, O LORD, and I will be healed; save me and I will be saved, for you are the one I praise.”
(Jeremiah 17:13-14)

The future is in the hand of the LORD; every human hope should rest on Him. HE should be the focus because from HIM comes the vision for our lives and the good plans for our future.

Those who forsake the LORD they do that by following idols and false religion, and by following traditions and customs that are contradictory to the word of God.

Jesus said, “Whoever believes in me, as the Scripture has said, streams of living water will flow from within him.” (John 7:38) What Jesus means with the living water is the Holy Spirit, “By this he meant the Spirit, whom those who believed in him were later to receive. Up to that time the Spirit had not been given, since Jesus had not yet been glorified.” (John 7:39) Jesus is the spring of the living water and those who forsake the LORD they are forsaking His word and His decrees and commands, and in doing so the Holy Spirit will be away from them.

Those who turn away from you will be written in the dust because they have forsaken the LORD, the spring of living water: Those who move away from the LORD they will perish and no eternal life for them.

Moving away from the LORD and His word, will take away also the healing power of the blood of Jesus; sicknesses will come into human life when man will be moving away from God’s presence. But in coming back to the LORD, there, man will receive healing salvation and abundant grace.

My Prayer

Father God I come before you in the name of Jesus who died on the cross for my sins and rose again to give me eternal life. LORD forgives me my sins _____ . Lord I am coming back to you, the spring of the living water, restore me, heal me, O LORD, and I will be healed; save me and I will be saved, for you are the one I praise, in Jesus name, Amen.

“My people have committed two sins: They have forsaken me, the spring of living water, and have dug their own cisterns, broken cisterns that cannot hold water.”
