

“As the body without the spirit is dead, so faith without deeds is dead.”

(James 2: 26)

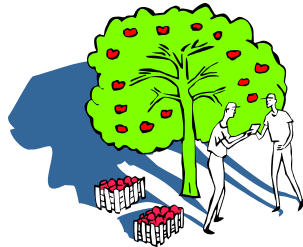

Body without the Spirit is dead:
Man formed from:-

- 1. Body: That contain organs and system like heart, lung, kidney, etc.
- 2. Soul: That responsible for feeling, emotion, thinking and reactions.

Man with body and soul is alive physically, he can live among people and react with them and performs tasks, follow rules, have plans, and ambitions to be achieved. Although such a man is physically alive, but spiritually he is dead; unless he receives the Spirit of God he cannot enter the kingdom of God and live forever, “I tell you the truth, no-one can enter the kingdom unless he is born of water and the Spirit. Flesh gives birth to flesh, but the Spirit gives birth to spirit.” (John 3: 5 -6)

Man born again and receives the Spirit of God when he accept Jesus as Saviour and Lord. Faith in Jesus eternal life.

faith without deeds is dead: As Jesus becoming Lord on our lives we will be transformed to His likeness; refraining from sins, loving people around us, helping them, supporting the poor, visiting the sick, doing our duties diligently, serving the Lord and revere His commands all the days of our lives. Such faith in Jesus manifest with good deeds, like the good fruit that clearly show its good tree. But faith in Jesus without dead is questionable and as good as dead.
