

“Oh, that my head were a spring of water and my eyes a fountain of tears! I would weep day and night for the slain of my people .”

(Jeremiah 9: 1)

Jeremiah, also called the crying prophet; He did God’s work that he entrusted to him to do in a precise and perfect way.

1) He warn the people of their sins and rebelliousness: He faced them with the word of God. He spoke to them the truth and declared to them God’s will and what He want them to do in order to follow God and live for Him. He face lot of troubles, accusations and opposition but he persevered to face the people with the full truth.

2) He cried to God for his people: The rebellious they received God Punishment because they did not respond to the word of God that the Prophet Jeremiah was delivering to them. But still Jeremiah had the kind heart with the full compassion. He not only told them the word of God but also he cried with pain when they received God’s punishment. He cried to God in prayer and intercession to forgive them and to restore them back to Him.

The life of Jeremiah teaches us the same: To continue preach and teach the word of God and to continue to pray and intercede in behalf of the people whom God want from them to repent and come back to Him.

My Prayer

Father God I come before you in the name of Jesus who died for my sins on the cross to give me eternal life. Lord, put more love and compassion in my heart to continue to reach the people and teach them your word and praying with tears and compassion for the lost and those who gone astray. Thank you Lord, this is my prayer in Jesus name, Amen.

“Your kingdom come,
Your will be done
on earth as it is in heaven.”

(Matthew 6: 10)

The Lord Is My Shepherd

Vol. 5 Issue 49

“Pray continually.”

(1 Thessalonians 5: 17)