

*"Blessed is the man you discipline,
O LORD,
the man you teach from your law."*

(Psalm 94:12)

The blessed are those who are privileged; those who have certain things others they don't have they are considered blessed. As well as people who pass through certain situations or circumstances of life that makes them eligible for more blessings they are considered blessed.

The Bible speaks about the categories of the blessed, "Blessed are the poor in spirit, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven. Blessed are those who mourn, for they will be comforted. Blessed are the meek, for they will inherit the earth. Blessed are those who hunger and thirst for righteousness, for they will be filled. Blessed are the merciful, for they will be shown mercy. Blessed are the pure in heart, for they will see God. Blessed are the peacemakers, for they will be called sons of God. Blessed are those who are persecuted because of righteousness, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven." (Matthew 5:3-11) And there are more other examples as you read the whole Bible; and among those is the 'Blessed the man you discipline, O Lord, the man you teach from your law.'

Blessed is the man you discipline, O Lord: Discipline is painful and no one like it or wish to pass through it. But discipline is one of the ways the Lord use to correct His people and those who belong to Him. It is one of the ways the Lord use to teach us obedience to follow carefully His law.

God's word in the Bible it teaches us the ways of the Lord that bring true and abundant blessings into our lives.

My Prayer

Father God I come before you in the name of Jesus who died on the cross for my sins and rose from the dead to give me eternal life. Thank you for your word and your love to me by disciplining me to teach me to obey your law. Lord, train me in the way of righteousness. This is my prayer in Jesus name, Amen.
