

“The sacrifice of the wicked is detestable— how much more so when brought with evil intent!”

(Proverbs 21:27)

people and His church by showing off to the public that they are good and had good intention. But God knows what is inside, and we as people of God we need to be discerning about these things.

God call us to stand firm and to face such kind of wickedness and not to yield to them or to their evil intents and plans. We are hold accountable to do our part by rejecting wickedness and expel evil men from among us.

God is not delighted in sacrifices but delighted in full obedience to the truth. Wicked, as they are not willing to obey, God is not willing to accept anything from them unless they repent and start to obey God.

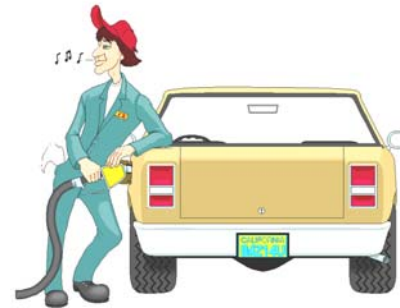

All what they offer is detestable toward God. Many people they are not willing to obey God and to live in the truth, but you find them they want to offer partial and defective sacrifices to God and they think by this way they can make God happy, but that is not the way. The fact is this: We cannot make God happy unless we repent and obey him. The things will become more difficult if the wicked will try to convince people that they are serving God by their sacrifices.

Now that is the situation, how much more so when their sacrifices are brought with evil intent: Now some wicked people will bring sacrifices to God with evil intent, in order to take advantage not from God but from his

My Prayer

Father God I come before you in the name of Jesus who died on the cross for my sins to give me eternal life. Lord teach me your ways and guide me with the full truth to be discerning and do what is right in obedience to your Word, and be aware of the evil intent of the wicked who wants to deceive us. This all I ask and pray in Jesus name, Amen.

“But to the wicked, God says: What right have you to recite my laws or take my covenant on your lips?”
