

“But the noble man makes noble plans, and by noble deeds he stands.” (Isaiah 32: 8)

Nobility, all people desire and want to be included and crowned with. But it has criteria's and certain characters. Nobility is to achieve good things that benefit yourself and others.

But the noble man makes noble plans: The noble man is an energetic person. He is full with the wisdom of God; he is a creative man anointed by The Holy Spirit of God and inspired by the good plans of God Almighty.

The Bible tells us about many noble men who are the men of God He used to execute His great plans for mankind. Among them are, Noah who built the Ark, Moses who delivered out more than two millions people from land of slavery in Egypt, Solomon who build the Temple of God in Jerusalem, Nehemiah who rebuilt the walls of Jerusalem, and many others noble men of God along the history who achieved great and noble plans of God.

The noble man by noble deeds he stands. Nobility should be linked with outstanding deeds that bring changes and makes differences. Noble men have the ability to influence others and even generations after them with the good things of God. Even they died but their deeds are alive and inspire others to walk in the way.

Don't be surprise; God wants you to be among the noble men. By noble deeds God wants you to stand. Trust the message of God to you, obey Him, and accept the task of doing noble deeds as you agree to pray.
