

“Whatever is has already been, and what will be has been before; and God will call the past to account.”

(Ecclesiastes 3:15)

“And I saw something else under the sun: In the place of judgment—wickedness was there, in the place of justice—wickedness was there.” (Ecclesiastes 3:16) Those are the bad moments that may pass on the earth and in the life of mankind. There will be time that instead of things go in certain direction they are getting another direction that is not correct. We expect justice and judgment for the wrong doings. But we found in certain times wickedness prevalent and evil is neither punished nor condemned.

These periods may pass and God in many instances will not punish at once. Certain people will take the advantage and they forget that there is a God, the Creator who will bring judgment on all what He had created.

God does not forget the past, and if He is silent that does not mean there is no account or there is no accountability. Instead,

1- God calls back the past: He will bring back the scenes. Some people they think they can go on with their wrongdoing; they think about themselves they are smart in hiding their wickedness and they continue to do evil. But God at times known only to Him will call back the past.

2- God will call the past to account: The wicked God will punish and will bring their wrong doing on their own heads. And He will justify the innocent and bring back to them what was taken from them and He will reward them for their perseverance in facing wickedness and the trespasses of the evildoers.

Therefore stand firm; don't share with the wrong doing of the evildoers. Continue to do right, and trust God He will be the one to bring you justice and reward you at His perfect time as you agree to pray.

My Prayer

Father God I come before you in the name of Jesus who died on the cross for my sins to give me eternal life. Lord thank you for your Word that assure me about your justice and righteousness. Guide me and help me to stand firm and to continue to do right, trusting you that you will be the one to bring me justice and what is due to me. Vengeance is Your Lord. This is my prayer in Jesus name, Amen.
