

“The least of you will become a thousand, the smallest a mighty nation. I am the LORD; in its time I will do this swiftly.”
(Isaiah 60:22)

Wonderful are God’s promises to us. They bring to us great comfort and give us great endurance from God’s grace and His presence in our lives.

In times we are weak, in times we are few in number, in times we are not much of strength and power God’s promise is there to help us, to encourage us and to support us and push us forward to go on and do His will and achieve what He planned for us.

The least of you will become a thousand: Few are very hard to bring together how much more a thousand. Yes, it is very hard to you and to me but not to the Lord. God will add and He will give the increase. Even we cannot imagine how, but that is the work of the Lord and that what His word says. We need to trust Him and not to question His word.

The smallest a mighty nation: This is His word, you may ask how this could be, but the answer is easy; the might nation before it became a mighty nation it was a small nation. The smallest can become small, the small can become big nation, and the big can become mighty.

I am the LORD; in its time I will do this swiftly. God is behind His word, he will not rest until He is coming to fulfill what he promised. God will do that and fulfill it in His time.

God had promised that: “In its time I will do this swiftly.” There is a time for everything and for each and every activity. God’s time is not ours. We try to hurry things and make it fast, but God knows which time it is best, and He will do it quickly.

My Prayer

Father God I come before you in the name of Jesus who died on the cross for my sins, who was buried but rose from the dead on the third day to give me eternal life. Lord gives me more faith and more patience to trust you and to trust your Word to me. Lord enables me to believe that of what you says, “In its time I will do this swiftly.” This is my prayer in Jesus name, Amen.

“Wait for the LORD;
be strong and take heart
and wait for the LORD.”

(Psalm 27:14)
