

“Since ancient times no one has heard, no ear has perceived, no eye has seen any God besides you, who acts on behalf of those who wait for him.”

(Isaiah 64:4)

Great are the promises of God to those who are waiting for Him. The Word of God declared the following in regard to the promise of God to those who keep their covenant with Him:-

1- No one has heard, no ear has perceived what God had prepared for such kind of people who trust Him and follow His steps in their lives.

2- No eye has seen any God besides you, who acts on behalf of your people who have full confidence and reliance on you and your promise in their lives. The people of God and we among them might be weak and in certain times there is no one to help us, but God and for sure will work for our behalf to deliver us from trials and will throw away the evil that comes against us.

God will act on behalf of those who wait for him. But who are those who wait upon God?

A- Those who live in Holiness: Purity is the mark of their lives. No greed, no lust, no injustice or manipulation. They have clean heart and pure motive.

B- Those who delight to do God's will: They are humble and gentle; they seek God and comply precisely with His plan for them.

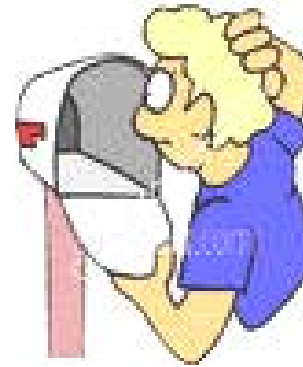

C- Those who waited patiently for God to come and fulfill His promise to them: They will not do their own, and they will not force God or schedule Him according to their own will and plan.

Be among such people and be blessed as you agree to pray.

My Prayer

Father God I come before you in the name of Jesus who died on the cross for my sins, who was buried but rose from the dead on the third day to give me eternal life. Lord helps me to fully trust you and wait upon you until you come and you will be the one to bless me. Lord gives me patience and self-control to achieve that. This is my prayer in Jesus name, Amen.

“Yet the LORD longs to be gracious to you; he rises to show you compassion. For the LORD is a God of justice. Blessed are all who wait for him!”

(Isaiah 30:18)
