

“Your wickedness will punish you; your backsliding will rebuke you. Consider then and realize how evil and bitter it is for you when you forsake the LORD your God and have no awe of me,” declares the Lord, the LORD Almighty.”

(Jeremiah 2:19)

punished and rebuked for their negligence to God and His instructions to them.

God is speaking to them that their suffering now of evil and the bitterness in their lives and hearts is the consequences of their wickedness and backsliding.

Lack of respect to God and lack of reverence to His Word is a very costly thing ultimately those who forsake God are going to pay.

So what you think now? It is still early you can repent and come back. Don't belittle God's patience and don't take advantage of His grace; be earnest and repent.

God is speaking about the imminent punishment and the rebuke that the evil doers, those who are among His people will receive.

God is not saying that He is going to rebuke and punish, but He is saying that the wickedness that the evil doers are doing will be the means that they will receive their due punishment.

God's Word is telling us that the backsliding of the people and turning their back against Christ and His Word and commands will be the instrument that later on will give them the rebuke that they deserve.

Consider then and realize how evil and bitter it is for you when you forsake the LORD your God and have no awe of me: God is speaking directly to the culprit and telling them how it will be hard to them when they will be

My Prayer

Father God I come before you in the name of Jesus who died on the cross for my sins, who was buried and rose from the dead on the third day to give me eternal life. Lord I repent from my sins; forgive me all my wickedness and backsliding. I am coming back to you to serve you takes me in your arms. I don't want to have a bitter and evil end, and I DON'T WANT TO SUFFER BEING AWAY FROM YOU. This is my prayer in Jesus name, Amen.

“³⁷ and if they have a change of heart in the land where they are held captive, and repent and plead with you in the land of their captivity and say, 'We have sinned, we have done wrong and acted wickedly';³⁸ and if they turn back to you with all their heart and soul in the land of their captivity where they were taken, and pray toward the land you gave their fathers, toward the city you have chosen and toward the temple I have built for your Name;³⁹ then from heaven, your dwelling place, hear their prayer and their pleas, and uphold their cause. And forgive your people, who have sinned against you..”
