

“He said to them, “You are the ones who justify yourselves in the eyes of men, but God knows your hearts. What is highly valued among men is detestable in God’s sight.”

(Luke 16:15)

Jesus speaking to the very heart of the people and that is the things that many they don’t like to hear. Many they don’t like somebody speaking to them bluntly; they don’t like when things becoming very clear, they delight in the grey area where things are not clear. But that very thing that people hate, devil also hate because devil use to hide in grey zones.

Jesus is the living Word of God and He had made things clear. He said to them:

You are the ones who justify yourselves in the eyes of men: Such kind of people they will seek the approval of other people by the outward things of life. They don’t care about values or spiritual principles as long as they can cover up, and externally things are accepted.

But God knows your hearts: God knows what inside you. If you are a person who compromise and you want to reach your goals with any method, then you are only justifying yourself, but God knows what inside you. You may cheat people, but you cannot cheat God.

What is highly valued among men is detestable in God’s sight: To tell you the truth many they live in the lies of the devil. They value many worldly things and for them these are important, but to God it is a detestable thing.

What is highly valued among men is detestable in God’s sight: God’s Word and the spiritual principles that comes from the Word of God that what is important and you ought to keep such things. Rather than delighting in the culture, tradition and useless practices of the people.
