

“Therefore say to them, 'This is what the Sovereign LORD says: None of my words will be delayed any longer; whatever I say will be fulfilled, declares the Sovereign LORD.’”

(Ezekiel 12:28)

God is speaking through His prophet Ezekiel strong and warning words. He is warning His people that He is going to do and fulfill what He had said.

God is patient, compassionate and merciful. But there is a time that God is fed up with people's continuous sin and their reluctant to repent.

God told His prophet Ezekiel about His rebellious people the following: “Son of man, you are living among a rebellious people. They have eyes to see but do not see and ears to hear but do not hear, for they are a rebellious people.” (Ezekiel 12:2) God already tried all the ways with them but they were resisting Him and neglecting His warning.

When you continue to sin and neglect the commands of the Lord and pay no attention to His warning, then you will receive the consequences of your sins and as the following: -

1- Life in bondage due to the sins that you are doing: God at the time of the Prophet Ezekiel He sent His people to Babylon as Exiles. And today when people of God continue to sin and are reluctant to repent then God will allow that they will be in bondage.

2- They will eat their food in anxiety and drink their water in despair: As consequence of sins, people will be in continuous suffering and they will not enjoy their daily lives and living.

3- God will spare and preserve the righteous: When God will send His judgment, He will preserve those who are obedient to His commands, and they will be the vehicle to bring the truth to others and to the next generation.

As you hear the message, don't hardened your heart; God is going to bring judgment, so be earnest, turn from your evil ways and repent as you agree to pray.
