

“The righteous choose their friends carefully, but the way of the wicked leads them astray.”

(Proverbs 12:26)

The righteous is the man who lives in faith in God and in His Word and with what the Lord had promised to Him.

The righteous is the man who fear God and who put God first over all his priorities and agenda.

The righteous believes in God’s righteousness and justice that He offered to the whole mankind when He sent His Son, the Lord Jesus Christ, who died on the cross for our sins to give us eternal life.

The righteous as he lives his life for God and walks diligently in His ways God would inspire him and lead him and direct him to do what is right and just. And one of these things of God in the life of the righteous is his perseverance to keep good relationships with the right people.

The righteous choose their friends carefully: As they know the Word of God and His requirement they will chose to have fellowship and to be in good relationship with people who know God, fear Him and walk in His ways.

By choosing the correct people to be their friends, they will make God happy by keeping His requirement as he recommend in His word. And in doing so they will reap the benefits of having good friends and righteous people of God as His Word dictates, “Walk with the wise and become wise, for a companion of fools suffers harm.” (Proverbs 13:20)

But the way of the wicked leads them astray: The wicked who had no regard to God and to His Word and instructions, they will live their lives without God’s guidance and direction, and sure they will make the wrong choice and decision. And one of these things that they will do wrong is choosing wrong people as friends who will lead them to take wrong decisions and fault choices. Therefore heed God’s Word and do what it says as you agree to pray.

My Prayer

Father God I come before you in the name of Jesus who died on the cross for my sins to give me eternal life. Lord I commit myself from this day on to chose my friends and the people that I will be in contact with, to be a people who fear you and walk in your ways, this all I ask and pray in Jesus name Amen.

“Blessed is the one who does not walk in step with the wicked or stand in the way that sinners take or sit in the company of mockers, but whose delight is in the law of the LORD, and who meditates on his law day and night.”

(Psalm 1:1-2)
