

“Your wrongdoings have kept these away; your sins have deprived you of good.”

(Jeremiah 5:25)

Certain times where are asking and questioning why we are not allowed to get certain privileges in our lives while others are allowed and have the access for that?

It might be injustice hinder these blessings from reaching us. favouritism It could be also the reason for us not receiving certain privileges and what is due for us. Or it could be not God timing for that, for God had certain timing for each and every blessing and for each and every person.

All the above it might true, but in addition to that there are certain facts we need to think of and to consider.

1- Your wrongdoings have kept these away: Certain times we are eligible for some rights, but we don't get them because we had behaved in wrong ways. Wrong approaches and bad attitudes hinder many beautiful things from reaching us and kept them away from you.

2- Your sins have deprived you of good: Another reason for us not to receive blessings and what is due for us is sin. Sin has destructive power and brings bad consequences on our lives. God would withhold His blessings from us until we repent and turn back to Him and consider our ways in life.
