

“That day Herod and Pilate became friends—before this they had been enemies.”

(Luke 23:12)

Why people who are enemy had become friends? What had happened and what the reason for that.

That was the day that Jesus was arrested by the Jewish; who accused Him before Pilate who examined him and found nothing wrong in Him. But when he hears that He is from Galilee he sent to Herod who was also in Jerusalem at that time. Herod also examined Jesus but he found nothing against Him.

Both Pilate and Herod found nothing wrong with Jesus and nothing right with the accusation of the Jewish against Him. But since both of them they wanted to please the Jewish they yield to their request to be crucified.

Both of them they were enemy but when it comes to do what is it right and just that they will not do. Both they were enemies but when it comes to follow the truth both of them are wicked and they will not do anything good. People who are wicked and evil doers even if they are enemies and hate each others but when it comes to do something bad and wrong they will put their hand together and agree to do.

What we learn from that also that certain people who are wicked you may see them doing something that seems good. In fact they are not good but what it seems to be good they do it with a bad intention.

What we learn here is a good teaching point, a practical one that we can use in our lives and service unto God. Wisdom is needed in our lives and God's word it teaches us more of that.

My Prayer

Father God I come before you in the name of Jesus who died on the cross for my sins to give me eternal life. Lord I thank you for your word that teaches more of your secrets and that enable me and equip me more to do your work and your will. Lord teaches me more of your ways. This is my prayer in Jesus name, Amen.

(Proverbs 1:7)

“Listen, my son, to your father's instruction and do not forsake your mother's teaching. They are a garland to grace your head and a chain to adorn your neck.”
