

“A wicked person earns deceptive wages, but the one who sows righteousness reaps a sure reward.”

(Proverbs 11:18)

The bible tells us the following: “Do not be deceived: God cannot be mocked. A man reaps what he sows. ⁸ Whoever sows to please their flesh, from the flesh will reap destruction; whoever sows to please the Spirit, from the Spirit will reap eternal life.” (Galatians 6:7-8) So whatever you do in your life you will reap the consequences of that.

Some people they collect their wages through cheating and lying and making corrupted deals. But they will reap

Deceptive wages! They will receive money and salaries but of no power or value on the reality. As they had earned it in cheating and lying then will be spending it in tears and pain.*

Deceptive wages will be spent for sicknesses, fines payment, accidents or on mishaps. Dishonest work will recoil back with bad influence on the person who collected his money through cheating.*

But the one who sows righteousness reaps a sure reward: The word of God tells us the following, “Whatever you do, work at it with all your heart, as working for the Lord, not for human.” (Colossians 3:23)

Wherever you work and whatever you do, put in your mind that the Lord is watching and is checking over you. So be honest and truthful to the work and job that is entrusted to you.

“Since you know that you will receive an inheritance from the Lord as a reward. It is the Lord Christ you are serving.”

(Colossians 3:24) In any work you do whether it is a ministry or a secular job you are serving Christ and from Christ you will receive your reward if you are going to do His well.

Therefore a sure reward is waiting for us as we are diligent and honest in performing what is entrusted to us to do.

My Prayer

Father God I come before you in the name of Jesus who died on the cross for my sins to give me eternal life. Lord I commit myself to be honest and truthful to the work that is entrusted to me to do. Lord helps me and directs me to do your work and your will. Give me strength and good health to serve you, this is my prayer in Jesus name Amen.

“In the same way, let your light shine before others, that they may see your good deeds and glorify your Father in heaven.”
