

“Whoever rebukes a person will in the end gain favor rather than one who has a flattering tongue.”

(Proverbs 28:23)

A rebuke is the very thing that many will not be happy to do because people will get upset and that may make enemies and try to retaliate and revenge from the person who rebuked them.

People in general they try to avoid confrontation and they want someone else to do it for them. But that is escaping of responsibility and trying to put it on someone else to do that work.

You want to be keeping looking good to the evil person, and keep good relation with the one who do bad. You do all that to avoid losses and to gain favour. That is what you think off but that is not what the bible tells us.

Whoever rebukes a person will in the end gain favor: There is a blessing for you from the Lord if you do what is right. You receive a favour if you put your hand with the Lord to correct a person in error. If you keep silent this person will perish and you will be hold accountable. But if you rebuke him and correct him then he might be upset and angry for a while but the time will come and the Lord will show him clearly that you have done good thing for him and he will realize your good work and intention toward him and he will love you for that action.

A flattering tongue the people will like to hear and listen but at the end they will realize that your flattering tongue was a way for them to be harmed and put in troubles.

Don't stand with Satan and deceive people by keeping silent and not be willing to correct them. You are not doing well with that behavior. Come out from your complacency and stand with God and do your part as you agree to pray.

Lord help me to confront the issues that need to be addressed and dealt with appropriately. Lord grand me the wisdom to do that, this is my prayer in Jesus name Amen.

“Preach the Word; be prepared in season and out of season; correct, rebuke and encourage—with great patience and careful instruction.”
