

“I do not sit with deceitful men, nor do I consort with hypocrites; I abhor the assembly of evildoers and refuse to sit with the wicked.”

(Proverbs 26:4-5)

If you do the following you are safe and blessed:

1- I do not sit with deceitful men: You are wise if you do that because deceitful men they will only cheat you and lead you in wrong ways and confuse you with wrong information.

2- I do not consort with hypocrites: You are self-controlled because if you will be a partner with hypocrites your integrity and reputation will be endangered and many good people will lose their trust with you and they will be moving away from you.

3- I abhor the assembly of evildoers: That is a wise decision because you will only learn there the bad habits like smoking, drinking, gambling, etc. They will affect your characters and corrupt your good attitude as the word of God says, “Do not be misled: “Bad company corrupts good character.” (1 Corinthians 15:33)

4- I refuse to sit with the wicked: You will be truly blessed if you are persistent in doing that because you will be protected from the harmful effects of the wicked as well as you will not receive from them the wrong advice that will lead you to do wrong thing to harm yourself.

4- I wash my hands in innocence, and go about your altar, O LORD proclaiming aloud your praise and telling of all your wonderful deeds. I love the house where you live, O LORD, the place where your glory dwells (Psalm 26:6-8): Truly you are now in the right path of life. As you repent and you want to be near God, with the people of God and to be part of his house, the church, the family of God, and as you are serving the Lord this will bring more blessings and peace of God in your life.

Continue to do all the above and you will be more blessed by the Lord.
